

25X1

German Democratic Republic

ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE AND OPERATION OF THE GDR STATE PLANNING COMMISSION

25X1 25X1

25X1

The State Planning Commission is an organ of the Ministerial Council which was set up for the purpose of establishing plans for the systematic development of the GDR economy and for supervising the execution of the plans.

The organizational setup is described in detail and the functions of the top officials are spelled out. The areas of competence for various officials are outlined.

25X1 The State Planning Commission ^{has} ~~operation!~~ the following main areas of ~~the GDR economy~~

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

- A. 1. Plan coordination
2. Investment planning
3. ~~Manpower~~ Manpower planning
4. Planning of goods circulation
5. Industrial planning
6. Agricultural planning
7. Transportation planning
8. Planning of health measures and of cultural development
9. Planning of water resources
10. Office dealing with problems of the Council for Economic Mutual Aid
11. Scientific technical cooperation with other countries
12. Inspection department
13. Personnel department
14. Document control department
15. Administrative department
16. Budget department
17. Press department
18. Interpreting department
19. Training department.

- B. Central Office for Statistics
C. Central Office for Research and Development
D. State Secretariat for Materials Supply

25X1

25X1

25X1

Next 3 Page(s) In Document Exempt